

Are you having issues at work?

Our specially trained employment lawyers are on hand to help with any issues you may face, and our lawyers have been supporting police officers for over 65 years. We can provide practical advice on all employment issues, including:

- All aspects of Police Regulations
- Discrimination and equality issues
- Pension disputes
- Working time issues
- Data protection issues
- Whistleblowing
- Bullying and harassment
- Medical retirement
- Attendance and performance

Meet your employment team:

Edward Cooper | Solicitor and Head of Organisation and Membership Services (OMS) Employment

"I have been representing PFEW members and the Police Federation for over 35 years, specialising in all aspects of employment law. Ensuring police officers are supported is our main priority and one our team take great pride in."

✉ edward.cooper@slatertgordon.uk ☎ 0330 995 5518

Laura Thompson | Senior Associate

"I deal with a range of employment issues on behalf of members of the Police Federation, using my broad experience to find positive resolutions. I thoroughly enjoy helping my clients understand the legal process."

✉ laura.thompson@slatertgordon.uk ☎ 0330 995 5943

For further information, please contact one of our legal experts.